Obituary

The gentle winds of new life blew gracefully on Monday, May 4, 2015 in Houston, Texas. The favor of God was upon Christopher Hubbard and Veronica Rideau for being committed to their care was a son that they named, Brody James Hubbard aka "The Brodster".

Brody's infectious laugh and heart-warming smile brought joy and happiness to everyone he touched during his short time here on earth. Heaven's gain was our loss, when our little angel was called to the Lord before sunrise on March 3, 2016.

While his physical presence will be missed, his spirit will always rest in our hearts. Brody James will forever be loved by his mommy and daddy, big sister; Shermayne, his Papa and NaNa; Cecil and Sandra Hubbard, his Poppa and Granny; Sherman and Theresa Rideau, his aunts Shermayne, Madalyne, Cecila, Allison, a host of uncles, relatives, and friends.

"Dearest baby, please know that our greatest blessing was having you."

Words From The Heart

My little Sugar Cookie,

You blessed my life in so many ways. We will continue to sing our songs for I know you are with me in spirit. I find peace in knowing Angels belong to heaven so I will say farewell for now!

Love You Always and Forever,

Auntie Madalyn

Our hearts are full of memories. We will forever speak the name Brody with pride. Without Brody, the family now has a broken link in our chain. But as the Lord calls us one by one the chain will link again. Although life moves forward his spirit will live with us in our hearts and we will forever remember our grandchild #7 Brody James Hubbard.

Poppa & Granny

Brody,

Papa & Nana baby, we cannot even begin to express the love and joy you brought to our lives. Brody you are such a blessing to us. Your smile, laughter, talking, and making noises as only you could, clapping and raising your hand praising God. The time we were able to be with you is a feeling we will never forget. Praying and singing praises to God with you "Jesus is the rock of my salvation, His banner over me is Love"

Love you,

Papa & Na Na
